If C files an appeal, C will be detained several months while the appeal is reviewed.

In addition to the costs of detention, your agency faces the costs of legal liability if you choose to comply with ICE detainers. Detainer lawsuits are regular occurrences, and although the request comes from ICE, the choice to comply means a state, county, or city is liable for potential damages. In 2011, for example, Jefferson County in Colorado agreed to pay $40,000 after holding a man in jail for 47 days on an ICE detainer (well past the detainer's own time limit). In 2008, New York City agreed to pay $145,000 to settle a lawsuit by a man who was wrongly held on ICE detainers for a total of 140 days. And in 2010, Spokane County, Washington, agreed to pay a $35,000 settlement to a man who was wrongly held without bail for 20 days because of an ICE detainer.
